

RESOLUTION 2003-61

A RESOLUTION CONCERNING THE REQUEST OF INTERNATIONAL GAMING SERVICES, LLC TO WITHDRAW ITS APPLICATION FOR A SUPPLIER'S LICENSE

The Indiana Gaming Commission ("Commission") adopts the following resolution pursuant to the authority granted to it under IC 4-33 and pursuant to 68 IAC 1-2-6.

The following factors have been considered by the Commission:

1. On or about June 9, 1998, International Gaming Services, LLC submitted an application for a Supplier's License to the Commission.
2. Pursuant to 68 IAC 2-2-4(d), "[a]n application for a supplier's license may not be withdrawn without leave of the commission."
3. On or about April 1, 1999, the Commission staff advised International Gaming Services, LLC (now known as Hyatt Gaming Services) that it the company would not need to be licensed by the Commission as a supplier.
4. Hyatt Gaming Services submitted a letter dated October 31, 2003, requesting that the application for a Supplier's License submitted by International Gaming Services, LLC be withdrawn. A copy of International Gaming Services, LLC's letter is attached to this resolution.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE INDIANA GAMING COMMISSION THAT THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTION IS ADOPTED:

SECTION 1. SCOPE.

Re: Request to withdraw the application of International Gaming Services, L.L.C.

Dear Ms. Brodnan,

Pursuant to 68 IAC 2-2-4(d) and your letter of October 28, 2003 to Mr. Ernest East, I respectfully request to withdraw the Supplier License application previously submitted by International Gaming Service, L.L.C., now known as Hyatt Gaming Services, L.L.C., (the "Company") to the Indiana Gaming Commission. This withdrawal request is based on the correspondence from Mr. Floyd Hannon, Deputy Director of the Indiana Gaming Commission to Mr. East dated as of April 1, 1999, a copy of which is attached, indicating that the Company would not be considered a separate entity from the riverboat licensee by the Commission, and therefore, would not require a Supplier's License.

If you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (312) 920-6463.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. East,

Reference is made to your letter dated March 8, 1999, concerning how we would license Hyatt Gaming Services in Indiana.

Based on the information you provided in your letter and in our earlier conversation, we will not consider Hyatt Gaming Service as a separate entity for the purpose of licensure. We will license the key persons involved as Level 1, key employees of the majority owner of the Rising Sun license.

This would include Larry E. Lewin, Pete Liguori and yourself. We have completed sufficient background investigation for Mr. Lewin, but will need applications from you and Mr. Liguori. In addition, we have completed a background investigation on Paul Bible and would request he be licensed if he will have a substantial role in the Rising Sun operation. In that regard, we are requesting that these gentlemen be licensed based on the apparent degree of influence each will have on the Indiana licensee's operation. If there are others within the organization who have decision making authority over the Indiana licensee, they should request licensure.

If you will submit applications for yourself and Mr. Liguori, we will include the cost of the application fees in the fee already paid for International Gaming Services. We will bill Hyatt for any additional investigative costs at one time. We would request that the additional applications be submitted as soon as possible.

If you have any questions, please call.

Sincerely,
